

GOING TO THE FAIR

Grand Rapids Will Now Have a
Collective Exhibit

AT THE COLUMBIAN EXPOSITION

The Herkey & Gay Company Does Not
Join the Movement—But Will Probably Exhibit Alone.

A call for a special meeting of the Furniture Men's association was issued yesterday and responded to by representatives of the companies whose names appear below. The proposition to make a collective exhibit, aside from the single exclusive exhibit which Herkey & Gay insist upon making, met with unanimous favor and the following agreement was signed by each member present:

The undersigned hereby agree to make a collective Grand Rapids exhibit at the world's fair, same to be placed in charge of a committee of three, who shall have authority to make selection of articles for such exhibit from manufacturers signing this agreement, all contents and expenses to be defrayed by association of the signers, hereto, in proportion to the capital stock employed in their respective business. It is hereby agreed that other matters of detail shall be settled by a majority of the votes of the signers hereto:

NELSON, MATTHEW & CO.,
FURNITURE MEN'S ASSOCIATION
S. J. JONES FURNITURE CO.,
NEW ENGLAND FURNITURE CO.,
EAST FURNITURE MANUFACTURING CO.,
GUTHRIE FURNITURE CO.,
WILLIAMS & BAKER FURNITURE CO.,
WIDOMSON FURNITURE CO.,
VALLEY CITY FURNITURE CO.,
GRAND RAPIDS FURNITURE CO.,
BETTS FURNITURE CO.

William A. Herkey and W. S. Gunn were appointed a committee to secure the balance of the names, which include a dozen other manufacturers. They will be secured today. A meeting will be held tonight to elect a committee who shall have direction of the exhibit. The Herkey & Gay company was notified of the meeting, but was not represented. It is probable that it will relinquish space in the Grand Rapids department and secure space in some other part of the building.

Montgomery-Clement.

Dr. James E. Montgomery and Miss Edith E. Clement were married last evening in the Church of Christ by the Rev. W. J. Russell. The seating capacity of the church was entirely occupied by friends and acquaintances of the popular bride and groom, and many others were obliged to stand during the ceremonies. The floral decorations consisted of a huge bank of roses, calla lilies and tropical plants, arranged in the form of a cone on the rostrum, and the wedding march was played by Alfred Hamer. At 7 o'clock the bride entered from the Sunday school on the right, leaning on the arm of her sister, Miss Ora Clement, who acted as maid of honor, followed by the Misses Nellie Beilstein, Anna Fisk and Helen Clark as bridesmaids. They passed down the aisle to the space between the pulpit, where they were met by the groom and Prof. Estelle of Ann Arbor, who had been selected as best man, having been escorted by the church ushers. Here the marriage ceremony was pronounced. The bride was dressed in white tulle, and wore a long white veil, and the groom was dressed in conventional black. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery and a party of guests drove out in the home of the bride's parents, in Walker township, where an elaborate wedding supper was served. They will begin housekeeping at once in the doctor's new home, 45 No. 20 North avenue.

Wants Her Son Arrested.

Mrs. Oley, proprietor of the boarding house at the corner of South Division and Island streets, served out a warrant yesterday for the arrest of her son, Willie, on a charge of drunkenly assaulting and when Officer Porter went to the house to arrest him the boy had escaped. He had not returned last night.

They Talk of Tarzoo.

From conversations among leading citizens, John M. Tarzoo now seems to be the leading candidate for mayor.

Within the past few days Judge Champ- lins has been seriously spoken of. It is believed he has not yet been decided as to whether he would take the nomination, and it is considered quite doubtful.

ENGINE ROOM BURNED.

The McMullen Property Damaged by Fire—Fogler Lanes Lard.

Fire was discovered last evening in the small one-story brick building at the rear of the McMullen block. Patrolman White turned in an alarm from box 31 at 8:15. The fire had gained considerable headway before the chemical engine could be brought into service, but after it had been at work three minutes the flames were extinguished. The building is owned by Mrs. McMullen and is used as an engine room for heating the block. It is also used by Fred Fogler as a storeroom for sausage and lard. The fire destroyed the lard and stock of sausage and burned an opening through the roof of the building. Mr. Fogler's loss was estimated at $50 and the damage to the building at $100, with insurance on both. The building is not connected with the McMullen block and the fire did not reach that structure. The origin of the fire is unknown.

IT WAS A SUCCESS.

Entertainment by the Ever-Ready Ten of King's Daughters.

The women comprised in the Ever-Ready Ten of King's Daughters entertained a large number of persons in Good Templar's hall last night with a fine program of songs, music and recitations. The evening's entertainment was thoroughly enjoyed, notwithstanding the close proximity to the hall of the fire which destroyed the engine room of the McMullen block and killed the rooms with smoke. Among those who took part in the program were: Mamie Jeffords, Alice Raymond, Mrs. Bert Hall, Margaret Loomis, the Misses Stickney, Bertha Pressey, Mattie Remington, Ralph Stone and P. Davis, Clara Newton, and Nelly Johnston. Each number of the program was received with appreciation. The proceeds of the entertainment will be devoted to relieving worthy cases of destitution and distress.

ART ASSOCIATION MEETING.

Comfortably Settled in Their New and Comfortable Quarters.

The first meeting of the Art association in the new rooms in the McMullen block was held last night with a large number of members present. The association is scarcely settled in its new quarters, but an hour or two was spent in sketching the figure of a gentleman attired in foot, ball costume, who posed for them. The rooms are all that could be desired for the association, being well lighted for afternoon work. Several sketching clubs have engaged the rooms in which to hold their meetings. Besides the large hall in which the sketching is done the association has a number of rooms, parlor, sitting room and dressing rooms. Since securing the new quarters an added earnestness has been manifested among the members of the association and better meetings will be the result.

BROKE HER ARM.

Margaret C. Cook Falls With a Dull Thud on the Walk.

Margaret C. Cook, the Woodville procuress, who is in jail making a fight against her conviction and sentence to the Detroit house of correction, slipped and fell yesterday afternoon on the icy walk at the corner of Pearl and Ottawa streets, dislocating her left wrist and breaking one of the bones of the lower arm. Deputy Sheriff Houman was returning with her from the superior court, where she had been to make arrangements for procuring bail. She weighs about 250 pounds, and she fell with considerable force, striking on her hands. She was taken to jail, where Dr. Best attended her injuries. Her effort to secure bail was unsuccessful, as the necessary papers were not completed. It is expected she will be released today.
